We're going casual with crafts this summer and offering some simple but creative projects you can complete at the Library! You can drop in anytime, but we recommend you give yourself about an hour to explore your artistic side with paints, canvas, and fabrics.

August 6: Painted Fabric Wall Art

Choose from our fabric stash and paint some bold, abstract wall décor. You'll finish off your piece by framing it in some charming, lightweight embroidery hoops, perfect for sprucing up a bedroom or making any space your own.

We are looking for a group of teens to help us develop programs and services for other teens!

Our new Teen Advisory Group (TAG) will:

- discuss ideas for collections and services in the Library
- plan and participate in programs and contests
- advise Library Staff on current trends and interests
- assist in promoting Library programs and services to peers in the community

Teen volunteers will gain experience for work and school applications, develop leadership and teamwork skills, earn volunteer hours, and have a lot of fun along the way!

To apply, please fill out this form.

All applicants will be contacted within two weeks, and invited for a short (15-20 minute) online interview.

Registration has been extended until July 15.

Sunset Songs & Stories

Date and Time: Wednesday, August 31 06:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

Address: Beavermead Park Beavermead Park

Age Group: All Ages

Event Category: Offsite

We're meeting down by the bay, or rather, the lake, for campfire songs and stories to say good-bye to summer. The Girl Guides will be leading us in song, and the Peterborough Storytellers will enchant us with tales for a late summer evening. We will send you off into the sunset with a Campfire Craft Kit - while supplies last.

This is a rain-or-shine event: look for us under the pavilion if it is raining.
