The Peterborough Public Library and the New Canadians Centre invite you to a Community Conversation on World Refugee Day, embracing this year's theme of "Our Home." Home represents more than just a physical space—it embodies safety, belonging, and connection. It's where cultures flourish, identities are celebrated, and communities thrive. For many refugees, home is a journey—a pursuit of refuge and the reconstruction of lives. It's in the resilience of individuals and communities as they navigate new landscapes and cultures, seeking to recreate the warmth and sense of belonging they once knew.

In celebration of Refugee Week, we are delighted to collaborate with the New Canadians Centre to host a special Community Conversation panel discussion. Titled "Our Home" this event aims to delve deeper into the theme of home and its significance for refugees.

Our panel of speakers, representing diverse backgrounds and experiences, will share insights and stories that shed light on the meaning of home, the challenges faced by refugees, and the importance of community support and solidarity. Through knowledge exchange and collective action, we aim to pave the way towards a more inclusive, equitable, and resilient future.

Join us on World Refugee Day for this enriching Community Conversation. Let's come together to explore ho w we can make “Our Home” a sanctuary for all, where every individual is welcomed, valued, and empowered to thrive.
