102 min. | DE 2024 | Philipp Fussenegger, Judy Landkammer

Start off Pride Week with ReFrame for an LGBTQ+ film and discussion.

Filmed during "The Teaches of Peaches Anniversary Tour" in 2022, this documentary seamlessly weaves together exclusive archival gems with dynamic tour footage capturing the transformative journey of Canadian Merrill Nisker into the internationally acclaimed cultural powerhouse Peaches. From the inception of the stage show to the rigorous rehearsals and riveting performances, the film provides an intimate look at the inner workings of a tour led by this beloved and globally celebrated icon. As a feminist musician, producer, director, and performer ce artist, Peaches has spent over two decades challenging gender stereotypes, solidifying her status alongside pop and music industry icons. Her fearless originality has challenged social norms, dismantled stereotypes, and confronted patriarchal power structures. Through biting wit, she advocates for LGBTQIA+ rights and tackles issues of gender and sexual identity, leaving an indelible mark on popular culture.

Note: Contains nudity, and sexually explicit language and material. Not recommended for youth under 14 years of age.

Sign up for this event at ReFrame for FREE or for an optional donation in support of documentary screenings in our community.
