Set aside an afternoon to craft with us and learn new skills along the way.

In this session, facilitator Rebecca Wasson will go over the history of Zentangle and will introduce you to the vocabulary, the tools and the basics steps to create your own beautiful Zentangle art.

The Zentangle Method is an easy-to-learn, relaxing, and fun way to create beautiful images by drawing structured patterns. It requires no prior artistic ability, it increases focus and creativity, while encouraging an increased sense of calm and personal well-being.

Please note: a $10 + HST supply fee is due at the time of registration for this session. Each person will receive a kit containing all necessary supplies.

Other sessions:

February: Make Shibori-Inspired Paper Snowflakes

Creativebug instructor Mia Semingson brings back the nostalgic joy of making the paper snowflakes from your childhood and elevates them with a shibori-inspired dip dye. Learn how to fold and cut Japanese washi paper as well as basket-style coffee filters and then play with dye to make decorative, sophisticated snowflakes that are truly one of a kind and a surprise to reveal. Hang them individually or string them together as a beautiful garland.

Please note: if you are more than 10 minutes late for a program you may not be admitted.

Light refreshments will be served.

January: Margot Van Sluytman (Guyana): Shared Humanity: A Story of Immigration, Justice, and Hope

Margot Van Sluytman moved to Canada from Georgetown, Guyana, with her family when she was seven years old, just two months before her eighth birthday. Seeking better opportunities and a safer environment, her parents chose Scarborough, Ontario, as their new home. Nine years later, the safety her family sought was shattered by a tragic event that changed her life.

In the face of this unexpected hardship, Margot turned to writing, which became a lifeline and a source of healing. Her experiences led her to become an advocate within the criminal justice system, using her story to inspire others and demonstrate that hope can always be found, even in the darkest times. Margot's journey reflects new beginnings, the process of healing, the pursuit of justice, and the resilience needed to find eventual joy.
